UM TO HOLD COMPUTER TECHNOLOGY CONFERENCE

MISSOULA --

"New Pathways to Knowledge" will be the theme of the second annual Information Technologies on the Frontiers of Learning Conference, to be held April 18-21 at The University of Montana.

The conference will include more than 40 presentations, as well as workshops, demonstrations, campus tours and a technology showcase.

The event is aimed at teachers; librarians; and anyone who works with people with disabilities or is interested in computers or computer networks, delivering information to rural areas or techniques for visualizing scientific data.

The sponsors, UM's Computing and Information Services and Center for Continuing Education and the Montana State Library, encourage participants to pre-register by Monday, April 12. Regular registration will begin at 11 a.m. Sunday, April 18, on the third floor of the University Center.

To register or receive more information, contact the Business Programs Division of the Center for Continuing Education, The University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; 243-2048.
